

Knowing people can't drive normally while on the cell phone. How could they be attentive if an emergency arises during flight. Also people talk so loud on the phone it is annoying to others.